The Top 5 Tips On How To Buy Homeowner's Insurance: Interview With Allstate Insurance Professional

Shopping for homeowners insurance is something that may not be researched until closer to the end of deal. However, did you know that just because the current home is insured, that the new home may not qualify for the same insurance to a new buyer? In this Episode 1 of my new series, I interview Insurance professional, Robert Zabbia of The Zabbia Insurance Agency and Allstate Insurance. We discuss common misconceptions and share tips about purchasing the best policy for your home. . . Homeowners Insurance is import to educate yourself on for so many reasons. You have to research and compare different companies because the lowest premium may be that way because they don't pay out many claims. Do your homework. The insurance company is also inspecting the house to make sure it is as safe as possible to prevent accidents just like a life insurance company would give you a physical. Additionally, the home may need flood insurance. Flood Insurance can be lowered by an elevation certificate but the same document could actually raise your flood insurance rate. I know all of my buyers ask me if there is an elevation certificate, but do you know how it is used? Lastly, you can always save money when buying insurance so reach out and let us give you a one on one rundown about buying insurance for a new home! . . To get the most up to date and honest information when buying a home or selling a house, contact a great local trusted real estate agent. . .
