Home Health Aide Salary | How Much Money Does a Home Health Aide Make

Home health aides provide routine individualized healthcare such as changing bandages and dressing wounds, and applying topical medications to the elderly, convalescents, or persons with disabilities at the patient's home or in a care facility. Home health aides also monitor or report changes in health status, and sometimes provide personal care such as bathing, dressing, and grooming of patient. There are no formal education requirements for home health aides, but most aides have a high school diploma. Home health aides working in certified home health or hospice agencies must get formal training and pass a standardized test. registerednurses.com/home-health-aide-salary-how-much-money-does-a-home-health-aide-make/

How To Start A Home Care Agency | Episode 1 - Getting Started 7 Key Steps

Best Software For EVV & Startup Agencies - bit.ly/ontimesoftware So I have been asked about 100 times How To Start A Home Care Agency. In this video you will learn the seven basic steps to start a home care agency. I have recently moved to Florida and thought I might as well expand on my company and again start a home care agency... sharing the process from beginning to end right here on ENTP LIFE. My vision for this agency is to solve the problem of discharge planning to reduce hospital readmission's and improve the quality of life for those who are chronically ill. As this series progresses you will be exposed to everything you need to know to start a home care agency, my approach to business, and everything you will need to succeed in this industry. For those of you thinking what is a home care agency the answer is quite simple. A home care agency is company that provides health care personnel in the homes of patients/clients in need of Nursing Care, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Assistance with Daily Living Activities, Companionship & Housekeeping. The industry is usually divided between skilled and unskilled professionals or as Medicaid and Medicare Agencies. The type of agency you start depends on your State's regulations and the scope of services you plan to provide. Join me on my journey of starting a home care agency and taking that company public. How Much Money You Can Make As A Child Care Business Owner

There is money in this child care industry! Visit childcaresites.com/courses to find out how much you can make. I do not believe that you should only and primarily be concerned with making as much money as you possibly can in any business/industry, or any job. I think you should put your energy and time into something that you enjoy and brings happiness to yourself and others. Money is an added benefit that absolutely comes if you do your job well! Moral of the story...opening a child care business can fulfill your life in many ways, including your pockets!
